

K-Love is a station that greatly needed in our communities. The music is uplifting and there is no need to worry about monitoring what the DJ is talking about. It is family friendly, which is almost impossible to find. It is hard to NOT hear something offensive when simply scanning radio channels. K-Love and Christian radio is vital to many people. It encourages and helps me to keep my priorities in line. How many rap or rock stations can say that they actually do something positive and helpful part of the time, let alone every second they are on the air. This station MUST stay!
